THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. On 24 September 1952, CHOU En-lai returned to Peiping from Moscow. Shortly after his return a meeting was held at MAO Tse-tung's residence in Hsiang-shan (116-12, 39-59) to discuss the results of the conference. A few top-level Chinese Communists attended the meeting to hear CHOU's report. None of those who attended mentioned the results of the meeting to their subordinates.

2.

CHOU's mission had been successful and that China and the USSR had reached new agreements whereby the latter would assist China in economic reconstruction and in the development of the Northwest. [] the joint use of Port Arthur was a necessity during the present military period. []
